1.2 ADMISSION TO CLASS-VI:

The admission of student in Class-VI at these schools is made through an Entrance Examination which emphasises to limit the numbers of students for boarding facility within prescribed boarders strength every year so as to ensure that only talents among the tribal students are admitted.

1.3 NUMBER OF SEATS:

30 seats for boys and 30 seats for girls in Class-VI are available in each School. 10% of the sanctioned strength of a Class is reserved over and above of the total number of seats for admission of the children of teaching and non-teaching staff of EMRS, local students of the revenue village where the EMRS exists, and students of Education Complex as "Day Scholars". Accordingly two seats are reserved for Educational Complex Girls, two seats are reserved for staff children of EMRS, and two seats are reserved for Revenue Village as order of preference. If children of the staff do not apply for the reserve seats, all seats are to be filled up by local students of Revenue Village/ Students of Education Complex.

1.4 APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

An advertisement in Odia inviting applications for the Entrance Examination and indicating the date & centre of Examination, the format of application etc. is issued centrally by the Secretary, OMTES for publication in three leading Odia dailies.

Notices about the Entrance Examination are also displayed at different Schools and Govt. offices for wide publicity. Students have to submit their application forms in the prescribed format in plain paper to the concerned Principal of EMRS.

1.5 ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Students belonging to ST only who are reading Class/standard-V from any School in Odisha are eligible to appear in the said examination. Reservation for the physically challenged students is as per Govt rules.

If a student is found ineligible at a later date even after admission in a School, will be cancelled.

1.6 FEE STRUCTURE

No fee is to be paid by the students for appearing the examination.

1.7 EXAMINATION:

The entrance examination would consist of one paper with objective type questions of Mathematics, English, Social studies & General Science of Class-V syllabus. The questions except those on English would be in Odia and the test would be of two hours duration i.e. from 10.00 A.M to 12.00 Noon. Total 100 questions carrying one mark each will be there. Answers will be ticked on the question booklet itself.

1.8 SELECTION OF STUDENTS:
